New VFS World Record
Ron Carter from Las Vegas, Nevada has shot his way to a world record at Desert Sportsman Rifle & Pistol Club. (see photo above). On November 16, 2016, Ron shot a VFS 200/300 yard Grand Aggregate of 499-14X. This record supersedes the previous record of 498-17X shot by Sheldon Turf on December 5, 2015.

Ron Carter's equipment was a 30x47 caliber, Panda action, Krieger barrel, Turf/Nader gunsmith's McMillan stock. Turf was the stocker, E. Nightforce scope, 4198 powder, 40.0 weight, CCI-BR primer, Lapua cases and ESP118 bullets.

Howard Blood, match director at Desert Sportsman during this event said Ron shot this world record without using wind flags.

Congratulations to Ron Carter on shooting his new NBRSA World Record in Yarnim for Cross competition. It is quite an accomplishment indeed.

New VFS World Record Set

Congratulations to Lynn Gibson from Burnet, Texas who set a new VFS World Record at Southwest Louisiana Rifle & Pistol Club at Lake Charles. He shot a 100-200 yard Grand Aggregate of 500-34X. This supersedes the record set July 21st by Jerry Kloeppel of 500-31X. While we're on the subject of new VFS World Records, Lou Murdica has broken the 5 shot 200-yard record set on July 29, 2012 by Michael Louwien, which was 250-12X. Lou's score was set at Desert Sportsman's Club on October 17, 2013 during the VFS Nationals and was a 250-14X. Congratulations to Lynn & Lou. Well done!

(10-12) Lou Murdica breaks three world accuracy records in Varmint-For-Score and becomes the 2013 Varmint-For-Score National Champion!

Lou was shooting a rifle built on a Kelbly Panda action.

This phenomenal shooting feat took place on October 15-18, 2013, at the 2013 Varmint-For-Score National Championship, held at the Desert Sportsman's Rifle and Pistol Club, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Four New World Records Set At Colorado Rifle Club 1000 Yard Benchrest Nationals

The Colorado Rifle Club hosted the seventh annual NBRSA 1000 yard benchrest Nationals with fifty of the nicest individuals/competitors anyone could wish to meet at a three day event. It was a pleasure to have them come from all over to play in our sandbox in Byers Colorado. Wrong choice of words, those out of State folks were serious and kicked some tail.

Friday was a tad on the breezy side with winds out of the North gusting up to 30 MPH and for those shooters that weathered the breeze then shot consistent on Saturday and Sunday ended up at the top of the list when results were finished.

World Records: There were four new world records set at this event. Congratulations gentlemen.

300 Yard Records Fall at St. Louis Hunter

The May 17th Hunter match of the St. Louis Benchrest Rifle Club brought out 24 shooters willing to challenge the threatening weather at the 100/300 yd. distances. At 100 yd. the alternating cloudy and sunny sky with shifting winds made the shooters earn their scores and slightly depressed our TCL x count. Jim Baker's 250-15X won him a 100 yd. trophy. During the 300 yd. stage the wind died down, the sky remained overcast and a light rain began to fall, and the "Big Boys" went to work on the 300 yd. NBRSA world record. Five shooters shot 300 yd. aggs. that were scored better than the present record score of 246-3X, but the 249-4X shot by Benchrest Hall of Fame member Ron Hoehn was the best. In the Grand combining a third place at 100 yd. of 250-10X and a first at 300 yd. of 249-4X earned Ron Hoehn the well deserved victory with a 499-14X. (If he keeps this up we will have to start calling him a Hunter shooter.) There was some fine shooting by several here today.

DON NIELSON
Canoga Park, Calif.

Don Nielson lowered the 5 shot Unlimited Grand aggregate by firing a .1903 at the same Visalia Invitational as Fletcher Williams. Don did his own chamber work on the 6 PPC Unlimited gun. He uses a Stolle Polar action and a Hart barrel. He also uses Wirthlin bullets (68 grains), and Federal 205M primers. His load was 30.5 grains of GI 322.
