

WELCOME TO
super SHOOT III
MAY 24-27, 1974 WAPWALLOPEN, PA. Coordinated by OHAUS SCALE CORPORATION

Precision

JULY, 1974
Vol. 19 No. 3
Fifty Cents

SHOOTING

a magazine for shooters by shooters

Super Shoot II

Lennart Johansson, Product Development Manager for Carl Gustaf, FFV, was the first place winner in the Firearms Industry competition for non competitor Industry representatives. Lennhart who is from Eskilstuna, Sweden fired a .4720 during his first attempt at benchrest shooting.

The top 20 at 200 yards during the preliminary competition gather around for the awards ceremony.

The industry sponsors who were on hand for Super Shoot II pictures are: (l to r) Clarence Detsch, Lee Six-Brown Precision, Ed Shilen, Seeley Masker, William Minneman, Dick Beaulieu & Martin Hull-Lyman-Sierra, C. E. Purdie-Bonanza, Steve Hornady (rear of C.E.), Ed Matunas-Winchester, Charles Fontaine, Lennart Johansson-Carl Gustaf, P.J. Hart and M. H. Walker-Remington.

Debbie Sue Stekl finished 1st. Grand Aggregate — Junior, 1st. 100 yard aggregate — Junior, Small group 100 yards — Junior, 7th. at 100 yards, 16th. at 200 yards and 3rd. in the Grand Aggregate after three days. Not bad for a young lady who was firing in her first match.

The Husband-Wife teams of Jeanne and Carl Lynn (2nd. at .9725), Emily and Ed Shilen (3rd. at .9759) and Edith and Homer Culver (1st. at .9367) received original ceramic pieces by Judy Constantino from Peoria, Illinois.

T. J. Jackson who fired a .2726 aggregate at the Gun World Trophy from Bob Swirz. He also eclipsed the .084 fired by Dr. A. H. Garcelon at the Championships last fall. That record group won Shooting Industry Trophies.

Bobby Hart received the group at 200 yards. The Sandra, for Shooting Trophies group.

May 24-27, 1974
Council Cup Range
Wapwallopen, Pa.

For more Super Shoot II facts and figures see the August issue of Precision Shooting.

The top 20 at 100 yards during the preliminary competition.

Walter Berger, NBRSA President, established a new 100 yard IBS 5-5 shot group aggregate with a .2134 during the 100 yard stage of the shootoff. This record breaks the .2189 fired by Lynn Hunt on July 12, 1964. For his 3 day 100 yard performance he won the Gun World Trophy.

100 yards in the preliminary competition receives a trophy for firing a new IBS 5 shot group record of .0816 to win this range, during the Varmint and Sporter as good enough to win the Guns Magazine and

The four man team match winners of the Gun World 4 Man Team Trophy are: Don Cloyd, Bob Swirz presenting the large trophy, Ed Shilen, Homer Culver and Bill Dryfield.

Shooting Times Trophy for small trophy was presented by Jon es, to Bobby for his .367 MOA

Homer Culver won the Rifle Magazine Trophy for his top spot finish in the three day aggregate. Homer fired a combined aggregate of .3771 to win that trophy, being presented by Neal Knox.

The man with the big apple in the form of the John Zink Memorial trophy was Bill Dryfield. Bill amassed a 4 day aggregate of .3882 to carry home the trophy and first prize money of $750.00.

