New Long Range World Records

April was a busy month at Rogue Valley Shooting Association in Oregon. We now have word from the Long Range World Records Committee members that there were indeed four (4) new world records established at the LR Nationals held earlier this year. Here are the new records and the new World Record Holders.

Richard Duncan

Heavy Gun 6-Target Score at
600-Yards, April 19, 2016

561-8X

Bill Johnston

Two Gun 12-Target Aggregate at
1,000-Yards April 21, 2016

5.5103"

Richard Sulffridge

Light Gun 3-Target Aggregate at

1,000-Yards April 21, 2016

3.5996"

Richard Sulffridge

Light Gun 6-Target Aggregate at
1,000-Yards April 21, 2016

4.1853"

Congratulations to Richard Duncan, Bill Johnston and Richard Sulffridge on some fantastic shooting. These gentlemen have raised the bar significantly.

(4) Derek Rodgers shoots another new 1000 yard National F-T/R National Record!

Shot by Derek Rodgers on July 16-17, 2016 with a rifle built on a Kelbly Panda action, McMillan Xit stock, and a Bartlein barrel.

New VFS World Record

Ron Carter from Las Vegas, Nevada has shot his way to a world record at Desert Sportsman Rifle & Pistol Club. (see photo above). On November 16, 2016, Ron shot a VFS 200/300 yard Grand Aggregate of 499-14X. This record supersedes the previous record of 498-17X shot by Sheldon Turf on December 5, 2015.

Ron Carter's equipment was a 30x47 caliber, Panda action, Krieger barrel, Turf/Nader gunsmiths, McMillan stock, Turf was the stocker, Nightforce scope, 4198 powder, 40.0 weight, CCI-BR primer, Lapua case and ESP118 bullets.

Howard Bloom, match director at Desert Sportsman during this event said Ron shot this world record without using wind flags.

Congratulations to Ron Carter on shooting his new NBRSA World Record in Varmint for Score competition. It is quite an accomplishment indeed.

New VFS World Record Set

Congratulations to Lynn Gibson from Burnet, Texas who set a new VFS World Record at Southwest Louisiana Rifle & Pistol Club at Lake Charles. He shot a 100-200 yard Grand Aggregate of 500-34X. This supersedes the record set July 21st by Jerry Kloeppel of 500-31X. While we're on the subject of new VFS World Records, Lou Murdica has broken the 5 shot 200-yard record set on July 29, 2012 by Michael Louwien, which was 250-12X. Lou's score was set at Desert Sportsman's Club on October 17, 2013 during the VFS Nationals and was a 250-14X. Congratulations to Lynn & Lou. Well done!

(10-12) Lou Murdica breaks three world accuracy records in Varmint-For-Score and becomes the 2013 Varmint-For-Score National Champion!

Four New World Records Set At Colorado Rifle Club 1000 Yard Benchrest Nationals

The Colorado Rifle Club hosted the seventh annual NBRSA 1000 yard benchrest Nationals with fifty of the nicest individuals/competitors anyone could wish to meet at a three day event. It was a pleasure to have them come from all over to play in our sandbox in Byers Colorado. Wrong choice of words, those out of State folks were serious and kicked some tail.

Friday was a tad on the breezy side with winds out of the North gusting up to 30 MPH and for those shooters that weathered the breeze then shot consistent on Saturday and Sunday ended up at the top of the list when results were finished.

World Records: There were four new world records set at this event. Congratulations gentlemen.

Thornbury Shoots Record

Dennis Thornbury established a new 200 yard Heavy Varmint Grand of .1609 at Visalia, Calif. on Feb. 16, 1992. He used a Hart barreled Stolle Polar 6mm PPC. Stu Harvey did the metal work and Lee Six the stock. His load was 28 + grains of T32, 68 grain Euber bullets, and Fed 205M primers.

They were officially measured as:

Match 1	.289
Match 2	.481
Match 3	.188
Match 4	.321
Match 5	.330

300 Yard Records Fall at St. Louis Hunter

The May 17th Hunter match of the St. Louis Benchrest Rifle Club brought out 24 shooters willing to challenge the threatening weather at the 100/300 yd. distances. At 100 yd. the alternating cloudy and sunny sky with shifting winds made the shooters earn their scores and slightly depressed our TCL x count. Jim Baker's 250-15X won him a 100 yd. trophy. During the 300 yd. stage the wind died down, the sky remained overcast and a light rain began to fall, and the "Big Boys" went to work on the 300 yd. NBRSA world record. Five shooters shot 300 yd. aggs. that were scored better than the present record score of 246-3X, but the 249-4X shot by Benchrest Hall of Fame member Ron Hoehn was the best. In the Grand combining a third place at 100 yd. of 250-10X and a first at 300 yd. of 249-4X earned Ron Hoehn the well deserved victory with a 499-14X. (If he keeps this up we will have to start calling him a Hunter shooter.) There was some fine shooting by several here today.

Ron Hoehn
